

DECEMBER 2013 / PRESS RELEASE

SKIN is the first CD by Nicola Lancerotti

Nicola Lancerotti is an Italian bass player and composer, based in Belgium. A few months ago he published his first CD as leader, titled SKIN (dENRecords). With him in studio: Daniele Martini on saxophones, Jordi Grogard on winds and Nelide Bandello on drums.

The first purpose of this album is to present some original tune carefully mixed with some free improvisations. Research, interplay and pathos are the main key words. A special attention to the packaging too: just a piece of white corrugated paper that becomes the CD folder. SKIN is also available in digital version on iTunes and Spotify.

For more info about the title, please read the liner notes wrote by Nicola himself:

I am the skin.

Sometimes I'm all skin.

Skin protects me

and tells you about me.

Skin protects me

and tell me about you.

I am the door between two worlds.

I decide about your love,

your clothes, your feelings.

It's under my skin.

You're under my skin.

It's all over my skin.

I am lust.

If I'm discovered

then everything is declared.

I can make you cry.

And I can save you.
